ABOUT ME

I am a photographer, an ice cream maker, a direct descendant of a woman hanged for witchcraft.

I play in a competitive NYC pinball league. I got my first hole-in-one when I was 16; I'm still trying to get my second. I'm a diehard Boston Red Sox fan and flew 4500 miles to attend the 2004 world championship parade in Boston. For one day. I love what I do and consider myself fortunate to be doing it.
